Competition Details

Earth. Arts. Life.

M'art'ch Madness is a multidisciplinary art competition presenting student works of art on the theme Arts for Life. Submissions from the fields of dance, drama, music, visual arts, media arts, literary arts, and more are accepted. Submissions are due March 10th and will be published as an online digital gallery on the Arts for Life Utah website and social media platforms soon after.

Presidents of all four arts education organizations in Utah (UMEA, UAEA, UDEO, and UACTT), will select 16 finalists for the the M'art'ch Madness competition based on the quality of work and connection to the theme. The 16 finalists will be announced on March 17th and voting will open on March 27th. Finalists will be published on the @artsforlifeutah Instagram story in pairs and viewers will be able to vote for their favorite! Each day the previous day's winners will be paired until we have a final winner on March 31st. The winners will receive a ribbon, certificate, and pair of AirPods in the mail!

- Acceptable formats include: .doc, .jpg, .pdf, .png, .mov, .mp4, .mp3.
- Submission must include biographical information: name, school, age, and grade (a headshot is optional but welcome).
- Include an artist statement about your piece (50-250 words).
- Submit your entry to artsforlifeutah@gmail.com or DM us on Instagram @artsforlifeutah

Consider these prompts:

How do the arts give you life? How does the earth give you life?

How can you use elements of the earth to create your art?

How does art connect you with yourself, others, and/or the earth?

How do the arts help you heal? How do the arts heal the earth?
